

Research Assignment Stipend Final Report

Name: K. Ann Horsburgh
Course: ANTH 2382: Human Nature
Semester: Fall 2022

Introduction I have long had an annotated bibliography assignment in the class but students have consistently struggled. Specifically, they often have a combination of these two inter-related problems: 1) failure to find appropriate sources; and 2) tell the difference between appropriate and inappropriate (non-peer reviewed) sources. I enlisted Julia Anderson to help. She ran three class sessions.

Description of the information literacy assignment or activities:

For this assessment you will choose your own topic of human nature. You may choose a topic covered in lecture or a particular aspect. You may also identify other topics that you choose outside the range of lecture topics, please s

The annotated bibliography requires that you select 4 peer-reviewed literature and be primary sources, not review source qualifies, please email the DF to the instructor and to w/published since 2000. You are to summarize and critical description and evaluation of each paper will be between AP style.

Method of assessment:

Annotated bibliographies were graded according to the document.

Results and impact on student learning

The quality of the work produced by the students was m Source selection was more thoughtful, and analysis and when I talked to the class about the sessions run by the Julia, several students expressed the opinion

Language: 10%

1. Grammatically sound, clear, and well-written
2. Grammatically flawed, misspellings and typos
3. Incomplete sentences